Thanks to those of you who placed me in touch with the new referral listings in here. If you know of anyone who has a superb business and would like to be added to this, please forward their information to me, I would be more than happy to follow up. Please call me if you want to know about any of these businesses in here. I can supply you with information that would help you in your decision making process. I also have other referrals who wish to remain anonymous, call! I'll tell you who they are....

And although Darryll Whaley cannot completely guarantee the quality of the work of any of these people, Darryll Whaley feels highly confident in giving you a strong recommendation for each and every person in this directory.

Darryll Whaley has provided License information where available. If it is important to you, please check licensing and insurance information prior to using these services.

As an additional service to you, I have made it possible for you to request additional copies of the referral directory from my website, ask questions, make inquiries, or give feedback regarding any of the business listings in this booklet. Simply go to www.DarryllWhaley.com and choose the "Read me" link, click on the contact link and scroll down to the bottom of the page. It is a simple process. You are always free to call me as well. Your comments are valuable.

This directory is being published with the full consent of its participants and should be used by its recipients as a guide to finding businesses and services that can assist in a variety of manners. This directory is not to be used for solicitation purposes.

In addition to receiving this catalogue in the mail, we have made it accessible to you and those you care about online as well. It can be accessed by clicking on the "community" link and scrolling down to the link "referral directory."

This directory is updated quarterly online.
